

Drugline

Drugline is a full-text data base offering problem-oriented drug evaluation comparable to a clinical consultation.

Source: Karolinska University Hospital

Drugline is produced by the Karolinska Drug Information Center (Karolic), Department of Clinical Pharmacology, Karolinska University Hospital in cooperation with the regional drug information centers in Sweden, Odense in Denmark and Turku in Finland. The database is indexed using the MeSH thesaurus. The information is produced in collaboration with clinical pharmacologists and other experts within specific therapeutic areas.

Broad Subjects:

Clinical Medicine; Pharmacology

Specific Subjects:

Evidence-Based Medicine; Pharmaceuticals; Pharmacology

Access Options:

- n Ovid Internet, updated 6 Times a Year
- n SilverPlatter Internet, updated 6 Times a Year

Other Information:

- n Coverage: 1974 - Present
- n Number of Records: 12,000+
- n Data Type: Bibliographic with Full Text
- n Records Added Annually: 6 annual updates