A world leader among nursing practice journals, the Journal of Obstetric, Gynecologic, and Neonatal Nursing (JOGNN) offers nurses, advanced practice nurses, and other health care professionals the latest practice, research, policies, opinions, and trends in the care of women, childbearing families, and newborns.

The official journal of the Association of Women's Health, Obstetric and Neonatal Nurses (AWHONN), JOGNN presents the relevant clinical scholarship that helps readers incorporate rapidly changing realities into practice. Recognized for ground breaking, peer-reviewed articles on important and sometimes controversial issues that help change legislative policy and every day clinical nursing practice, JOGNN brings you new information on topics such as

- Perinatal Infections
- Genetics
- Neonatal Emergencies
- Women's Risk-Taking Behaviors
- Evidence-Based Practice
- Labor Support
