ISSN: 07415214

EISSN: 10976809

Journal of Vascular Surgery provides cardiothoracic, vascular, and general surgeons with the most recent information in vascular surgery. Original, peer-reviewed articles cover clinical and experimental studies, noninvasive diagnostic techniques, prostheses and vascular substitutes, microvascular surgical techniques, and endovascular management. Special issues publish papers presented at the annual joint meeting of the Journal's sponsoring societies: the Society for Vascular Surgery and the International Society for Cardiovascular Surgery (North American Chapter).
