The Journal of Nursing Care Quality (JNCQ) is a peer-reviewed journal that provides practicing nurses as well as nurses who have leadership roles in nursing care quality programs with useful information regarding the application of quality principles and concepts in the practice setting. The journal offers a forum for the scholarly discussion of "real world" implementation of quality activities.

With more proven strategies for improving health care quality, accountability, outcomes, and performance, JNCQ is practical, comprehensive, and timely. Readers discover ways to overcome shrinking resources and rapid-fire clinical change to achieve optimal patient care. Practicing nurses and nurse leaders stay current on the latest innovations, strategies, and solutions.
