

Advances in Skin & Wound Care: The International Journal for Prevention and Healing

A peer-reviewed, multidisciplinary journal, Advances in Skin & Wound Care is highly regarded for its unique balance of cutting-edge original research and practical clinical management articles on wounds and other problems of skin integrity.

Source: Lippincott Williams & Wilkins (LWW)

Author(s): Richard "Sal" Salcido

ISSN: 15277941

EISSN: 15388654

Endorsed by the American Professional Wound Care Association and the National Alliance of Wound Care, each issue of Advances in Skin & Wound Care features CME/CE for physicians and nurses, the first journal in the field to regularly offer continuing education for both disciplines.

The mission of Advances in Skin & Wound Care is:

* TO MEET the informational needs of multidisciplinary skin and wound care practitioners through publication of peer-reviewed original research, comprehensive review papers, and practical patient management articles that meet the criteria of scientific credibility, fair balance, and relevance to clinical practice.

* TO PROVIDE a forum for current information on new products, emerging technologies, educational opportunities, and research breakthroughs to support the clinical and professional development of skin and wound care practitioners.
