Published under the auspices of the European Association of Social Psychology, the European Review of Social Psychology is an annual series that reflects the dynamism of social psychology in Europe, the attention now paid to European ideas and research, and the exchange of ideas between Europe and the rest of the world.

This review will further the international exchange of ideas by providing an outlet for substantial accounts of theoretical and empirical work.

- The most-up-to-date, authoritative view of contemporary social psychology today, encompassed in a indispensable reference text.
- Geographical spread and theoretical diversity of authors to give broad coverage.
- The series has an experienced editorial board consisting of senior scholars from various European countries and the United States.
- All chapters are carefully edited to give consistency and accessibility to an international exchange of information.
