Servant Leadership in Nursing; Spirituality and Practice in Contemporary Healthcare

Embraces the philosophy that a true leader, in any venue, must be a servant of those he or she leads.

This text includes current information on the relevance of servant leadership for nurses practicing in a health care setting with extensive literature review on leadership in nursing and health care as well as on servant leadership. This unique text also includes a newly developed model of servant leadership in nursing, supported by powerful and poignant perceptions and experiences of servant leadership elicited in interviews with 75 contemporary nursing leaders.
