Keep up-to-date whatever your medical subspecialty with more than 20 key journals in the Current Opinion series.

For nearly 20 years, the Current Opinion series has been recognized for its unique ability to cull the latest research and foremost developments from the more than two million journal articles published each year. The exhaustive coverage of the LWW Current Opinion Collection, spanning 26 specialties, helps minimize the volume of available information.

In each of the journals in the LWW Current Opinion Collection you’ll find:
- Full coverage of a complete medical discipline in a concise format so that you can efficiently review all important developments that affects your work
- Revealing insight and expert commentary from the leading authorities in each relevant specialty.
- Bulleted and annotated references that provide critical comment on noteworthy studies, keeping you tuned to the best minds, and the best thinking, in your fields

Powered by Ovid's superior navigation and popular search and linking features, this collection is an essential resource for any clinical library.
