The official journal of the International Gynecologic Cancer Society and the European Society of Gynaecological Oncology

The International Journal of Gynecological Cancer presents papers from throughout the global community of researchers covering many topics including: basic science, epidemiology, diagnostic techniques, surgery, radiotherapy, chemotherapy, pathology, and experimental studies. The journal allows you to call on a roster of international experts for the latest research, advice, and knowledge in order to provide the best treatment for your patients. The list of editorial board members represents every part of the globe and all the major disciplines - gynecology, oncology, radiation therapy, and pathology - involved in treating cancer.
