AORN Journal

Rely on Ovid as the trusted solution that transforms research into results

The AORN Journal provides professional perioperative registered nurses with evidence-based practice information needed to help meet the physiological, behavioral, safety, and health system needs of a diverse patient population.

Journal content supports the clinical, research/quality improvement, education, and management strategies related to the nurse's role in caring for patients before, during, or after operative and other invasive and interventional procedures in ambulatory and inpatient settings.
