Collections are a convenient, cost-effective way to build your portfolio of electronic books. Like all Doody's Essential Titles, these 51 books are also Doody's Core Titles and have been recommended as essential purchases for institutions—especially those with limited budgets—seeking to expand their medical resource portfolio. Recommendations are conducted by two librarians with subject area expertise working independently.

What's a Doody's Essential Title?

Doody's Review Services has come to replace the Brandon/Hill Select Lists as a world leader in providing authoritative and expert quality assessments of medical, nursing, and allied health books. Recommendations for Essential Titles are made in subjects by librarians who select and score in that area of specialty. Recommendations are made independently of one another, based on the librarian's experience with their respective institutions. Designations are specialty specific. Each Essential Title is considered a Doody's Core Title that's a truly must-have resource.

Did You Know?

- Nearly 20 subject areas in key medical and health science specialties are covered—from cardiology and critical care to nursing and neurology
- All 51 Essential titles are also Doody's Core Titles in the Health Sciences
- The latest edition of DeVita, Hellman and Rosenberg's Cancer: Principles & Practice of Oncology is a Doody's Essential title and is part of the collection
- If you purchased the 2010 LWW Essential Collection, you can upgrade to the 2011 and enjoy great savings
