

PACe setterS—The Official Journal of the Joanna Briggs Institute

Ovid

Your Primary Source of Evidence-Based
Healthcare Information

- Offer original articles that provide the best available evidence for clinical decision-making at the point of care with a practical focus on evidence utilization
- Encourage adoption of evidence-based practice and professional development through knowledge sharing
- Ideal for both managers and clinicians
- Search PACe setterS and other evidence-based resources simultaneously on OvidSP

Keep current with the advances in evidence-based practice with PACe setterS, an online-only journal featuring the latest news from the Joanna Briggs Institute (JBI) and their global network of Collaborating Centers.

As a leader in the evidence-based healthcare community, JBI reviews the world's best primary literature resources and applies a strict methodology to assess their relevancy, accuracy and scientific credibility.

Researchers in JBI's Collaborating Center on 6 continents then assess, synthesize, transfer and use the evidence, ensuring that PACe setterS is at the forefront of evidence-based care:

- Evidence-based recommended practice guides for healthcare professionals
- Evidence-based information for consumers
- Clinical audit criteria for healthcare professionals
- Peer-reviewed implementation study reports

PACe setterS covers all facets of healthcare including:

- Acute Care
- Nursing
- Midwifery
- Eldercare
- Occupational Therapy
