Transforming Research into Results

Your Complete Online Research Solution

Powerful new tools help you to quickly uncover and refine full text results; stay current on the latest literature; and conduct more of your research within a single, integrated platform – OvidSP.

Now you can select resources to search right on the main search page.

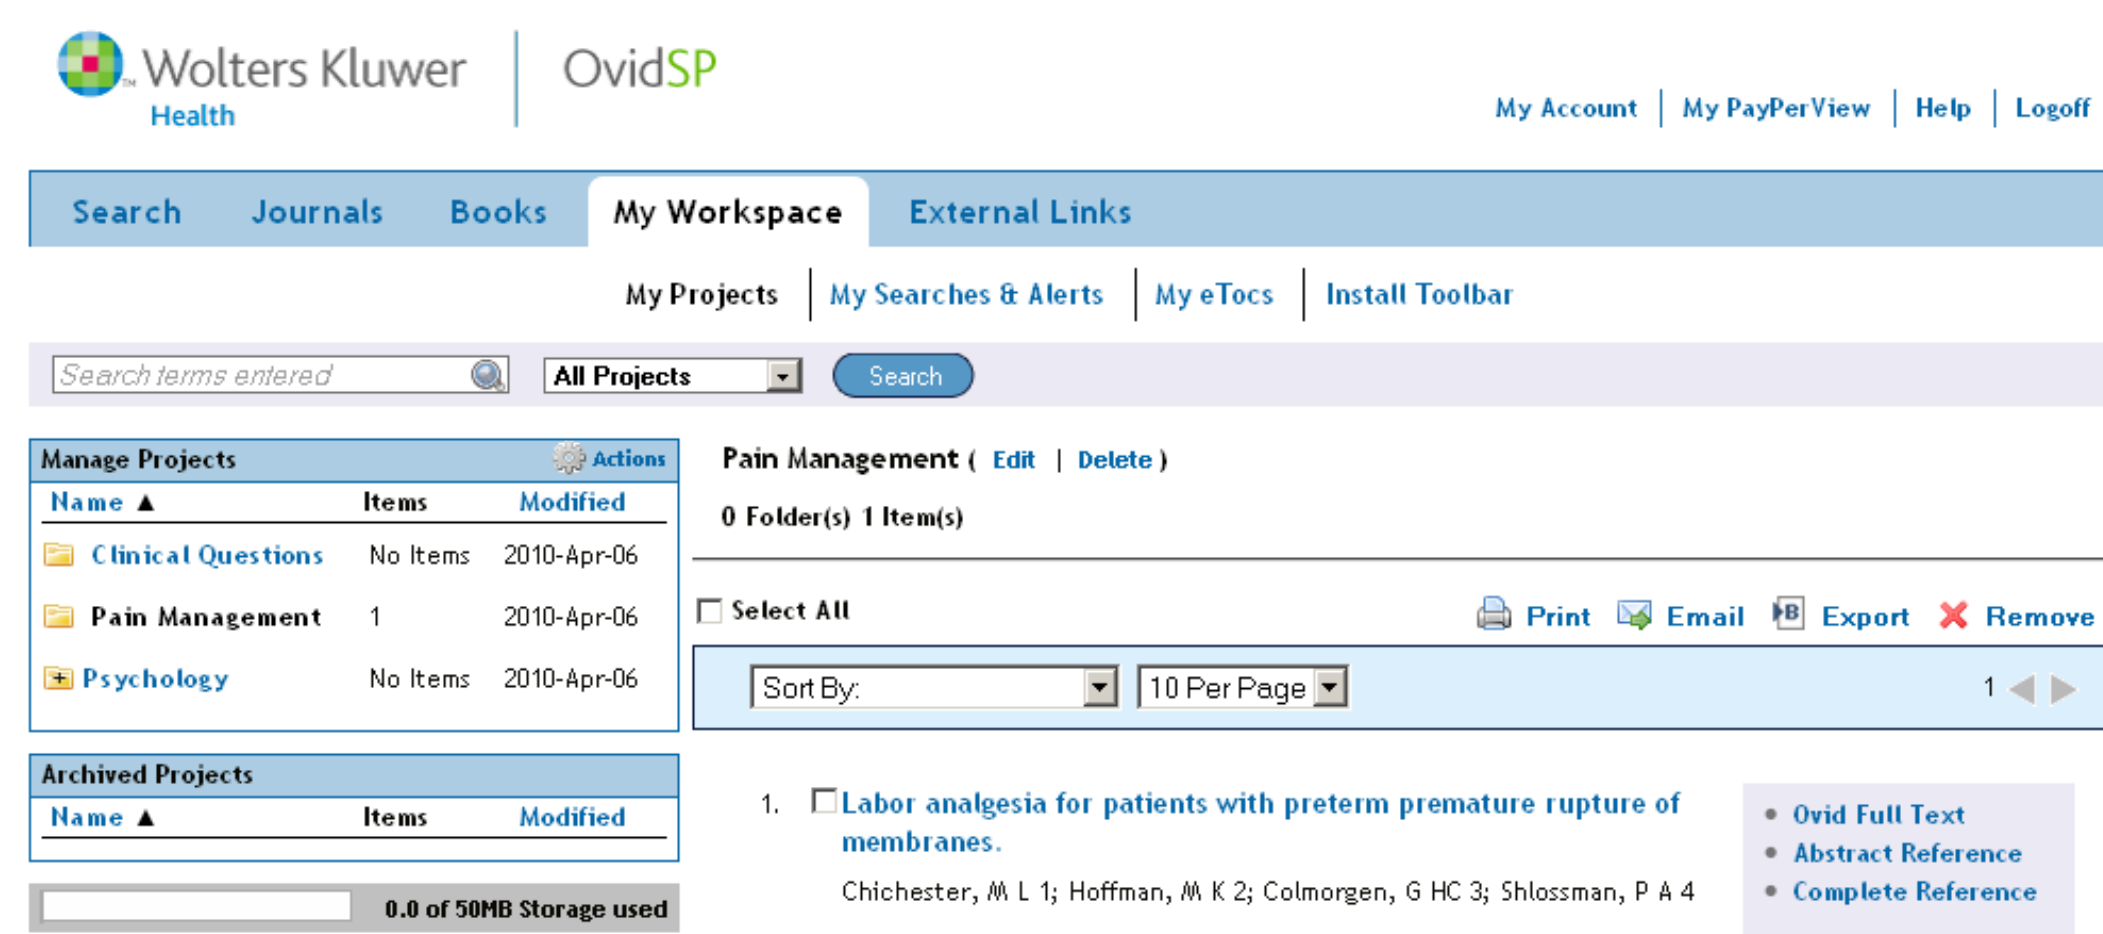

The main navigation bar moves with you from screen to screen and includes links to My Projects.

Use the Results Tools section to check your search terms and narrow searches with new Filters.

Results email, print, and export functions are now more visible above the results list. Instantly add a citation to My Projects.

Create a research project in My Projects—upload citations, articles, images, and more.

Add critical information you find browsing online to a research project using the Ovid Toolbar.

Ask your librarian for more information on the latest OvidSP enhancements—training resources, Frequently Asked Questions, and more!
